During the period from July 1st to December 31st, 1959, the German Tourist Information Office distributed copies of 950 different pamphlets, brochures, posters, magazines, press releases, circulars, time tables, hotel guides and photographs to travel agents, transportation companies, newspapers, trade papers and the general public. All this material, with the exception of the press releases and circulars were prepared, printed and distributed by Stephen Goerl Associates, Advertising, 48 E. 43. None of the material contained any political view points or was intended to influence the recipient in any political directions.

Duplicate copies of the several press releases and travel pointers are hereto attached. In addition there are numerous travel posters, time tables, circulars and hotel guides, which, if required, will be furnished.
